Dear Readers,

Welcome to your July edition of the Barton Miller. How the year is flying along.

Did you enjoy the Village Platinum Jubilee Weekend Events? From the quiz at the start, to the Midnight Oil concert to round things off, and lots of events in between, I think there was something for all to enjoy. Of course we must thank the organisers who gave their time and skills to put it all together. I'm sure you will see, in this edition, the appreciation for all involved.

We still have two concerts in the church, (see following pages) to look forward to and tickets for both of these are available.

Copy for the double Aug/Sept edition of the magazine to be submitted by 20th July please.

Yours sincerely Nancy Higgins and Frances Lewis

Vicar's Letter

Celebrations!

What a brilliant time the bank holiday weekend was! The show stopping events in London to celebrate our Queen's Platinum Jubilee; the Trooping of the Colour, the Service of Thanksgiving at St Paul's Cathedral, the live concert outside Buckingham Palace and culminating with the Pageant on The Mall all drew huge crowds to give thanks for the incredible life and reign of the Queen. Whilst she wasn't able to attend all the events, whenever she appeared there was an eruption of applause for her.

And the celebrations around the country in our towns and villages drew lots of people out to celebrate too. The beacon lighting, the entertainment and the sharing of food all lifted our spirits, something we very much needed as we emerge from the grips of COVID. All of this to give thanks for the Queen's wonderful life of service to our country and the Commonwealth. The events locally were wonderful and were enjoyed by all who attended.

Behind all of this long life has been our Queen's faith in God. In that famous speech she made in 1947 when still Princess Elizabeth she said, "that my whole life whether it be long or short shall be dedicated to your service .... God help me to make this vow". And a few years later between her accession to the throne and her Coronation she again asked her people "to pray for me on the day of my Coronation that God would give me wisdom and strength to carry out the promises that I should then be making". God was and is at the heart of our Queen's life and she has sought his strength and guidance throughout that time. She has also made reference to her faith in all of her all of her annual broadcasts.

I pray that each of us will take strength from our Queen's faith and seek to put God at the centre of our lives and to seek his strength and guidance in all we do.

ST MARY'S CHURCH, BARTON MILLS

ORGAN RECITAL by DAVID POULTER on SATURDAY 9th JULY 2022 at 7pm, in the church

David Poulter, who plays the organ in St Mary's Church, Barton Mills for the service on the third Sunday of each month, has formerly been Director of Music at the Cathedrals of Liverpool, Chester and Coventry. He makes our church sound like a cathedral with his magnificent music!

His programme on 9th July may include some of these pieces:

- Coronation March: Orb & Sceptre - William Walton; Imperial March - Edward Elgar; Variations on God Save the Queen - Max Reger;
- Music for The Royal Fireworks - G F Handel; Arrival of the Queen of Sheba - G F Handel; Pomp & Circumstance, Imperial March No.1 in D, Edward Elgar;
- ... plus one or two other pieces like VW Greensleeves, Bach Jesu Joy etc.

Tickets are £10 each (children 16 and under £5), and may be bought from Dave Traher (01638 718328) or Frances Lewis (01638 713155) or on the door.

Any profits from the evening will go directly to church funds.

ST MARY'S, BARTON MILLS, PRESERVATION CHARITABLE TRUST

Hello Everyone.

I hope you all agree that we celebrated Her Majesty's long reign in style over the Jubilee Bank Holiday weekend. The Preservation Trust Charity Trustees are delighted that the Jazz Concert in the Church was so well attended, and greatly enjoyed by most, loyally endured by a few, and netted a small profit to go towards our fund-raising. The music sounded great in the building, and I urge you to book your tickets for the next event:-

on Friday 15th July when Felix Simpson and Terry Adams plus friends, who will be rocking the church with great pop standards from 6 decades! They have great vocals and are skilled musicians who bring the church alive. Contact me, Liz Jarvis 583728, or Alan Butcher 713534 for tickets.

We have an important role in helping to maintain our beautiful church. It has been used for eight hundred years as a place of worship and celebration as well as remembrance. The acoustics are great and the seating comfortable, so it's a natural choice for concerts, while the history is palpable in the windows, structure and memorials. I would like to encourage as many of you as possible to join as supporters, for a very small but essential donation, so that we can keep this precious space well-loved and functional. If you would like to become a supporter, please do contact me, the secretary, Liz, or Dave, the Chairman, who will enthusiastically welcome you into the fold!

The interior of the north wall of the church has been assessed as needing vital specialist plaster work. This will cost us £1,400 which is a small price to pay for such important work which is needed to maintain our stone walls in good condition. This should combat the damp that is affecting the paintwork on that wall, which must also be repainted with appropriate materials.

To that end, we really must seriously consider ways to increase our income. If you have any suggestions or ideas as to other fund raisers you would feel everyone would enjoy, please do contact Dave Traher or me Liz Jarvis. We would love to hear from you, with your ideas for using our lovely church, and for bringing in funds to help us maintain it.

Looking forward to seeing you at the concert mentioned above, and hearing from anyone who has new suggestions for things we could all enjoy whilst supporting the Charity.

Warm regards,

Liz Jarvis, Secretary

BARTON MILLS BAPTIST CHURCH

If we venture outside on a Friday evening from now until the end of October we can be sure of seeing many holiday makers and/or visitors passing through on the A-11, culminating in a long traffic queue. I am sure too, many of you have had to listen to a voice on the airport tannoy saying “XX Airlines apologises for the delay of Flight XX, we now hope to start boarding in an hour’s time”. This obviously brings a groan of impatience to all those sitting around in the lounge and causes much frustration and hardship.

When things go wrong we often fall apart, we are human beings whose “patience span” is limited, sometimes even non-existent. Tempers easily fray as we wait in “queues” (often regarded as Britain’s favourite pastime) at the supermarket checkouts, in traffic jams and at the railway stations and airports. One measure of our spiritual maturity is the way we act on these occasions.

The business of waiting is difficult. Christians sometimes display this trait in their attitudes toward God in His dealing with them – especially when His answers to our prayers seem odd and restricting. In Psalm 27 v 4 we are told to “Wait on the Lord, be of good courage...wait I say on the Lord.” The word ‘wait’ in this instance, I believe, means to trust or hope. He is an all-knowing, all-powerful Heavenly Father so we can confidently expect that in His own good time He will lead us through. It’s not always easy to be patient, but God can be trusted. As we look forward to these next couple of holiday months let us Wait patiently for Him!

PATIENCE MEANS AWAITING GOD’S TIME WITHOUT DOUBTING GOD’S LOVE

We meet at the chapel each Sunday at 3p.m. Why not join us, you will be made most welcome.
F. A. RUTTERFORD

A special additional note from Faith, she also wished to include in this Barton Miller:-

“I would like to say thank you to everyone who sent me good wishes on my recent award of the MBE”.

At this meeting we celebrated the Queen's Platinum Jubilee. We made an early start and decorated the hall with bunting and flags.

We made a floral arrangement in red, white and blue flowers in a basket. Blue flowers were the most difficult to find but we all managed. To guide us we invited Linda and Diane former members and avid floral arrangers themselves. The hall was very quiet while we concentrated very hard to get our baskets to our liking.

To make more of the evening we all wore red, white and blue, brought a selection of Royal memorabilia and ended our evening with a Royal Spread. Filo pastry cups filled with Coronation chicken, Queen Mary's cheese biscuits sandwiched together with smoked salmon and anchovies, a chocolate, cream filled Victoria sponge and a cake decorated with a Union Flag in raspberries and blueberries

We ended our evening with our Raffle everything red, white and blue. Of course!

FAITH RUTTERFORD, MBE

Faith Rutterford, who lives in Church Lane, Barton Mills and who has worked at the US Air Force (USAFE) base at RAF Mildenhall for 63 years, has become an MBE in the latest Queen's Birthday Honours. She was recognised for public service.

Faith started work at RAF Mildenhall in Suffolk in April 1959, as soon as she left school and she still works as a secretary at the Base. She is now the longest serving of any member of staff on the Base. She has been described by the Commander of the 100th Civil Engineer Squadron as the "glue that binds the squadron together".

We all offer our congratulations to Faith on receiving this well-deserved honour. Not only has she served her employers on the Base for all these years, but she also takes an active part in Barton Mills village life, especially as a member of the Baptist Church (you see her articles in the Barton Miller every month), on the Village Hall committee and in other organisations.

FELIX SIMPSON & TERRY ADAMS CONCERT, FRIDAY 15th JULY

Back for the third time due to their immense popularity, Felix Simpson, Terry Adams and their band will be performing on Friday, 15th of July at 7.30pm in our lovely Barton Mills church, that we are raising funds for.

The best live music in East Anglia? Possibly - as Felix comes to us following a stint at the O2..... we are lucky to have such talent right on our doorstep for £15 a ticket.

An array of music to suit the most eclectic of tastes - it will be an evening not to be missed.

Tickets now available. First come first served.

BARTON MILLS JUBILEE WEEKEND

Barton Mills celebrated the Queen's Platinum Jubilee in splendid style. There are many people to thank for all their hard work, but especially Keith Fuller and Claire Miller, members of Barton Mills Parish Council, whose enthusiasm and energy made the whole programme happen. The crown at the top of the church tower, lit at night, was designed by Liz Jarvis and built by Peter Noble and Dennis Todd. Keith Fuller made the crown, also illuminated, that was over the village hall porch. Scarecrows came out in force - one to celebrate each year of the Queen's reign - did you see Edmund Hillary surmounting Mount Everest, and the Queen inspecting the terracotta warriors? Many scarecrow clothes came from the Hospice Charity Shop, and Balmforth Estate Agents kindly sponsored the straw. At the Quiz on the Thursday evening, the questions provided by Kevin Milligan all had a 'royal' if at times somewhat obscure, theme. And we all sang the National Anthem to round off the evening's entertainment. Peter Alder organised the gathering of classic cars and motor bikes, and he also led the team who set up - and took down - the marquees on the field.

Teams of people provided the refreshments in the village hall, and the coffee morning there, with delicious cakes, was much enjoyed.

The junior football tournament on the Saturday morning was a great success, and there are calls for this to be repeated next year.

Claire Miller organised the children's activities on Saturday afternoon, and it was good to see so many families enjoying events on the field and in the village hall.

Because of the rain on Sunday morning, the church service, that was to have been on the field, was held in the village hall. It was led by our Team Vicar, Revd David Everett, and attended by a congregation of people from several denominations.

As a finale on Sunday afternoon, the Midnight Oil Jazz Quintet gave their concert in the church. This was a church Preservation Trust money raising event, and the National Anthem concluded our celebrations.

THANK YOU to everyone who helped, and to everyone who joined in all the celebrations.

BARTON MILLS JUBILEE WINNERS.

Royal Scarecrow Treasure Hunt: Chris and Lynn Elkington

Children's Jubilee Trail: ; under 7: Joshua Gray , 7+: Nathan Sinclair

Cake competition: Shannon Bonney.

And many thanks for all the other wonderful, and delicious, entries.

Quiz: Dorothy and Colin Ashton and their Team

Junior Football: 6 teams entered the 7-a-side under 10s tournament.

The teams were Mildenhall, Soham, Thetford, Newmarket and two teams from Isleham. Mildenhall and Newmarket played in the final, which Newmarket won 5-0.

BARTON MILLS SCARECROW FESTIVALS, 2000

The first Barton Mills Scarecrow Festival was held in 1998, and in 1999 we achieved a Guinness World Record. The Certificate states 'On 13 June 1999, a World Record 760 human-shaped scarecrows could be found around the village of Barton Mills, Suffolk, UK, all made by local residents.'

This meant that in June 2000 we welcomed huge crowds of visitors to Barton Mills. Brian Crowder, who sadly is no longer with us, contributed many articles and poems for the Barton Miller, and this is his poem, celebrating our Scarecrows, that was published in the Barton Miller for July 2000.

"AND THOUSANDS CAME"

I'm a scarecrow and lodge here in Suffolk
With my chums I appear once a year,
But my brain's made of straw so you see folks
I'm more simple than I may appear.

When the crowds arrived just to see me
And my friends all on show round the streets
I was puzzled to know where they came from
In their thousands to those two day meets.

I'm told most arrived from around here,
Islegreen, Worlingrow, Frecklinglodge,
Red Row, Tuddenhall, these all sound queer,
When your head's made of plaster and stodge.

In my cloth ears these names cosmopolitan
Sound like Chippenhill or Hollyham,
Westbeck, Erismild, Kennygrenton,
Oldmarket and a hamlet called Ham!

Is this Lakenbart Mills enquired someone
Passing one scarecrow tableau of friends
Though amusing it was all quite confusing
We're exhausted when each big day ends.

May I thank those who sewed us together
And nurtured my buddies all year
We scarecrows oft bring lovely weather
And a weekend chock fill of good cheer.

We try to make you lots of lolly,
For the church and good causes as such,
But our main aim was making things jolly
And we think you enjoyed our daft touch?

Brian Crowder.
