Dear Readers,

This month, we are delighted to welcome Rev Mark McCaghrey as the new Team Vicar for the Lark and Lee Group of parishes, (which are Barton Mills, Freckenham, West Row and Worlington) along with his wife, Fiona and family. Mark will be licenced at a special service in Barton Mills church on Wednesday 19th June at 7.30pm. (See info on later pages).

We do get many compliments on the Barton Miller being prepared and distributed, free of charge, to everyone in Barton Mills. This is only possible because of the team work, together, of all of us. Each part of the process does take its own time, and, in reality, cannot be hurried. Editing and compositing takes 2-3sessions at the computer, the magazine is then proofed and a master copy prepared. This is then printed on a risograph machine, which is a full morning's work. The pages are then passed on for collation and then on for distribution, where bundles are assembled for the various delivery routes and the magazine is delivered around the village, hopefully in time for the 1st of the month. This is quite an achievement. If you feel you would be able to help at the printing stage of this process, please get in touch with Frances Lewis, who would greatly appreciate help with this task.

Please forward copy for the July edition of this magazine to the editors by 20th June.

Yours sincerely, Nancy Higgins and Frances Lewis

Vicar's Letter

Gill's Reflections

As I write this I can hear the screeching arrival of the swifts and by the time you read this article I am hoping to have a 'returner' and at least half of my nest boxes occupied with 'newbies'! (we had several investigating last year).

I never cease to delight in the changing seasons as they follow year on year and whilst some may be taken for granted, there are for me certain markers which announce that they are on their way.

Personally, I love the season of spring and my garden is well-planted with colour that starts to bloom from late January and continues until the summer flowers take over in June. Add to that the increased activity of birds in the garden and the arrival of swifts and you can be sure that another summer beckons with all its promise!

Yet how easy it is to take all this for granted!

I wonder, if like me, it has been a while since you looked properly at a flower – really looked? - noticing every individual part and pattern rather than briefly appreciating the effect the colour has in the garden or a pot! Or have you recently checked out the steady progress of a trail of ants, watched butterflies searching for nectar, or listened to the humming of bees or the trickle of a stream?

In this busy world we live in it can be difficult to stop and stare as the famous poem by William H Davies ran: 'what is this life if full of care and we have no time to stand and stare'. Remembering our Creator God and his purposes (Genesis 1:1-31 God saw all he had made and it was very good) can encourage us to see afresh all that we have been given. Think how much wonder can be missed when we fail to look, fail to consider the life growing around us and fail to appreciate all we have been given.

Of course, I am aware that at times our vision is obscured by anxiety when we are perplexed or worried and I know from experience that sometimes it is hard to see the good when faced with the 'not good'. Yet the 'good' is always there in the hands of the Creator, waiting for us to notice and be encouraged by the new life that springs from what was perceived as lost - producing new shoots to colour and enrich our lives.

Before the end of the day allow some time to 'stop and stare' at the life around you and don't be surprised if you swell with praise for all God has given.

'O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder, consider all the hand hath made', Stuart K Hine

BARTON MILLS BAPTIST CHURCH

Unfortunately, due to circumstances beyond my control, i.e., age and/or medical condition, I am now unable to produce any edible things in my garden. However, I am still able to look out on to a mass of green grass constantly visited by one of our local muntjacs. Due to Keith only able to use one hand at the moment, sincere thanks are extended to my American neighbour across the road who very kindly “stepped in the gap” and cut my grass, enabling me to enjoy the view.

The Bible records some special visits too. During Jesus’ earthly ministry He had known each of His disciples intimately, they were only human and when He was crucified they must have been devastated. After three days He rose from the dead and appeared to them on several occasions. They must have wanted these visits to continue indefinitely – but this was not to be, however, He had told them in Acts 1 v 5 “...ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence” and in John 14 v 16, He said “I will pray the Father and He will give you another Comforter, that He may abide with you forever”. As He promised in Acts 2 v 1 – 4, we read “Now when the Day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. Suddenly there came from Heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. “And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost” – this was Pentecost. Those who experienced that wind didn’t see it, but as a result of it, were never the same again. As a result of this visit their lives changed dramatically –they went forth victoriously proclaiming the good news that a resurrected Saviour was offering salvation to every repentant sinner. We may not experience a “mighty rushing wind”, and we no longer have a holiday to remind us of it, but Christians all over the world will remember it as Whit Sunday, this year we celebrated it on the 19th May.

GOD’S SPIRIT LIVES INSIDE US AND ALSO WALKS BESIDE US

Why not join us in our Worship Service each Sunday at 3p.m. You will be most welcome.

BARTON MILLS CLUB NEWS

KNIT and NATTER: This group continues to meet every Wednesday afternoon, from 2 to 4pm, in the church room. Knitting is optional! Any craft, or none, will do to accompany the nattering and tea and biscuits. New members very welcome – please just come along.

BOOK CLUB: This club meets in the church room at 7pm on the second Thursday evening of each month and has recently welcomed some new members.

At our May meeting we discussed 'Dombey and Son' by Charles Dickens. This is a very long book, and few of us had succeeded in reading it all the way through, though some had heard all of it in audio versions. 'Dombey and Son' is the name of Mr Dombey's business company. The story relates the lives of Mr Dombey, his daughter Florence and other people close to him. We discussed the life of Charles Dickens and wondered at the skill he showed in writing so many varied and interesting books and other articles, so many of which highlighted the harsh treatment of children and lack of care for older people at that time. He showed an amazing knowledge of the 19th century world. His life included many travels, lectures and theatrical performances. We all agreed that he was a truly great author!

For the meeting on 13th June we are reading 'The Crow Trap' by Ann Cleeves – a Vera Stanhope detective novel.

New members will be very welcome. For more information please call Ali on 07982 679926.

ST MARY'S, BARTON MILLS, PRESERVATION CHARITABLE TRUST

Dear Barton Millers,

Summer is finally here... the time for barbecues, and evening entertainment, and especially Pimm's on the lawn.

And we can certainly help you with two of these delights on the evening of Saturday June 8th ...

We are very pleased to announce that the village-wide famous Judd's Pimm's Bar will open on the Church Lawn at 6.30pm as we get ready to enjoy our big Summer Concert from THE KELD ENSEMBLE, with clarinettist Sarah Williamson! The concert will be in two parts, with a raffle and refreshments in the interval.

We are really lucky to have this chance to watch and hear a musician such as Sarah Williamson. As a soloist, Sarah has performed at many of the world's major concert halls, including Carnegie Hall, the Royal Albert Hall, The South Bank Centre, The Berlin Concerthaus, and The Theatre des Champs-Élysées.

We hope you will thoroughly enjoy the exciting selection of classical music on offer from all these talented players, including familiar pieces from the film music of John Williams, pieces by Holst and Sibelius, and ending with Mozart's Clarinet Concerto in A Major.

Tickets, £20.00 for adults, £10 for children, are available from Liz Jarvis on 01638 583728 or emjarvis68@gmail.com or Alan Butcher, 07788 535104, or alandavidbutcher@gmail.com

Very Best Wishes to you all, Liz Jarvis

Report of May 2024 Meeting

Our speaker this month was the Rev. David Atkins, a retired canon. He started his ministry in Lewisham, south London and ended up in Suffolk via Essex. The vicarages in his several parishes varied, the most inconvenient was a Grade 1 listed 14th century timber framed building where even the front door had its own listing. He was always ready to join in parish activities. He taught Morris dancing, wrote hymns to the tunes of Rule Britannia and I'm forever blowing bubbles. He played Dolly Parton in a concert and grew a beard for Lent, which people could cut off for 20p a snip. One of the great advantages of being retired is that he is banned from the parish electoral rolls and cannot be on the PCC.

Our June meeting will be the AGM. The annual subscription is £10. We meet at 2pm on the second Tuesday each month (11th June) with members paying £2/meeting. We have a speaker or another activity, refreshments and a raffle. All women are welcome.

NATURE NOTES

In the May Barton Miller I mentioned No Mow May as a way of finding out what wild flowers might be lurking in your lawn. Well, I left a patch of our own lawn uncut and within a couple of weeks I was able to identify at least a dozen species which appeared: Common Storksbill, Daisy, Ribwort plantain, Creeping cinquefoil, Wild marjoram, Oxeye daisy, Musk mallow, Field forget-me-not, Black medick, Dandelion, Creeping buttercup, Sweet violet and Hawkweed. In addition, several other plants have appeared that have not yet grown large enough for me to identify. None of these wildflowers were planted but have germinated from seed that has been present in the soil for many years. In any soil there are thousands of seeds lying dormant which will germinate when the right conditions occur.

The Seed Bank, as it is generally known, gives rise to some interesting events. In the days of steam trains our railway embankments were populated with Rose Bay Willowherb plants. The seeds were spread along the tracks by the movement of the trains but would only germinate when they had been subject to fire. This happened frequently when hot ash spilled from the engines caused a fire; hence the common name Fireweed.

Possibly a much more well known example of the seed bank is the appearance of Common Field poppies in the Flanders Fields of France and Belgium during World War One. Poppy seeds, which can lie dormant in the soil for over fifty years, germinated after the soil was disturbed by bombing, shelling and the movement of horses and motor vehicles. This sudden blush of scarlet poppies inspired Lt. Col. John McCrae, a Canadian doctor, to write the poem 'In Flanders Fields' which was first published on 8th December 1915 and written in memory of his fallen colleague Lt. Alexis Helmer.

If the Seed Bank interests you, it could be worth a visit to the Millennium Seed Bank at the National Trust estate of Wakehurst Place in West Sussex. It is co-ordinated by the Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew and is the largest plant conservation programme in the world. This purpose-built underground facility houses over 2.4 billion preserved seeds from around the globe as an insurance against future extinction.

In June, Foxgloves, Common spotted orchids and Bee orchids will be in flower; roadside verges are often a good place to spot orchids. Immigrants will appear in the shape of Hummingbird hawk moths, Red Admirals and Painted Lady butterflies. It's incredible to think they have travelled here all the way from North Africa and southern Europe. We have already seen Painted ladies in our garden. On warm evenings you may be lucky enough to see a Hummingbird hawk moth sipping nectar from your garden plants. You'll have to be quick though – their high metabolism means they move very quickly from plant to plant then disappear as quickly as they arrive. Photographing them can be a real challenge!

Good Neighbour Scheme – Summer sunshine after the Spring rain.

“Into each life some rain must fall”

(excerpt from the poem “The Rainy Day” by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow)

This famous line originating from Longfellow’s poem has been the spur to create and operate the Good Neighbour Scheme in Barton Mills over the past 7 years. We are just one of more than 45 such Schemes across Suffolk and more villages and communities are looking to start their own Schemes. We are in a network of Schemes that have helped other communities with new ideas to become reality and we all learn best practice from each other.

The Barton Mills Good Neighbour Scheme is here to help in ways that can help to alleviate such problems that many of us experience from time to time. Whether that is needing practical help (shopping; collecting prescriptions; help with IT, TVs and smart ‘phones; moving furniture; one-off garden tidy-ups; help with pets; etc.) or just a volunteer calling in for a chat that will help to lift the spirits, we aim to make a difference to our neighbours lives where we can.

Please remember that you can contact us on 07419 211040 or e-mail us at **barton.neighbours@gmail.com** to see if we can help you with your particular needs.
